FOREWORD

In compiling this 36th edition of Caerulea we have, in accordance with the popular trend, presented large pictures of events of the past school year; consequently it has been necessary to shorten and in some cases to eliminate stories and general explanations. The introductory and division pages contain many pictures of places of interest and beauty for which California is particularly noted. It is our hope that these pictures will help promote a better understanding and a truer appreciation of the state in which we live.

Caerulea presents in word and picture a graphic record of student life at Poly High. Scholarship, athletics, drama, public speaking, social life, and the great special day programs like that of International Day, all reappear on the pages of Caerulea. Then, too, we must not forget that underlying all this outward flow of activity lie the deeper phases of student life and achievement, which after all are most vital; the friendships formed, the interests and purposes awakened, the ambitions aroused, the appreciations developed, the skills that are acquired, and the love of learning that is fostered. All these become a part of us, enriching our lives and making up our equipment for the future.

Our hearty thanks and congratulations to the members of the staff and their advisers for Caerulea of 1939 which portrays life at Poly so beautifully and effectively.

SENIOR CLASS—This 1939 Cærulea is dedicated to the senior class for its record of outstanding achievement in all fields of endeavor. It is hoped that this book will serve as a pictorial summary to recall to the graduates their senior year at Poly High. Memories of the gala prom, a day in Catalina, and International Day will be forever vivid in the minds of the 700 members of this group.

JUNIOR CLASS—The junior class has made a commendable record in scholastic as well as extra curricular activities. Members of this class will be remembered for their superb participation in public speaking events, plays, school publications, athletics, and for the executive positions they have held in various organizations. The record of the present class justifies us in saying that they will not fail in their obligations of leadership.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS—DeCoudres (V. Pres.), Heffner (Treas.), Barker (Sec.), Shumate (Pres.).

SOPHOMORE CLASS—With energetic enthusiasm the five hundred sophomores who entered in the fall of 1938 and the two hundred who entered in 1939 have already begun to receive recognition as outstanding students in many activities. Now that they have been introduced to the Jackrabbit spirit and traditions, much will be expected of them as they contribute to the building of a better Poly High.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT—As the last faint notes of "Joy to the World" died away, another magnificent Annual Christmas Concert was ushered in. It was presented in the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium on December 13th and 14th. Miss Shouse, together with Mr. Gill, Miss Hoff, Miss Grubb, Mrs. Higgins, Miss Richards, Miss Wyant, and Miss Aaronson, made this production a splendid success. The simplicity and beauty of the music and the effective visualization resulted in the usual moving performance.

BOYS' GLEE—The Boys' Glee Club under the direction of Miss Shouse, is well known throughout the city, due to the many choral programs they present during the year. They are also an indispensable part of the Annual Christmas Concert which is presented each year by the music department of Poly.

SENIOR BOYS' GLEE—FIRST ROW: Charter, Jacobsen, Williams, Irish, Agal, Fisher, McDonell, Neal, Denos, Steidel. SECOND ROW: Renfro, Montgomery, McPherson, Neble, Wheaton, Burch, Frombach, Daniels, Galbraith. THIRD ROW: Froatman, Shepard, Andreason, Corbitt, Whitcomb, Nunes, P. Clattenberger, Broudy, Nicholes. SENIOR GIRLS' GLEE AND JUNIOR GIRLS' GLEE—The success of the Christmas Concert is largely dependent upon the combined efforts of the Senior Girls' Glee and Junior Girls' Glee. When they are not working on the production of the Christmas Concert their time is occupied by singing before civic and fraternal groups. Miss Mary Shouse is their director.

SENIOR GIRLS' GLEE—FIRST ROW: Murphy, Elliott, Christensen, Chase, McGee, Holladay, Whipple, Normington, Tuckett, Renfro, Wille. SECOND ROW: R. Dodge, Baird, Hydanus, Meshad, Grant, Reed, Collins, Edwards, Oakey, Klockslem, Puckett. THIRD ROW: Heidewald, Smith, Catlett, Brantingham, Bullard, Stevens, Trauger, Nixon, Taylor, Logan, Miller. BAND—Mr. Anthony Gill and his band deserve our appreciation for the honor that they have brought to Poly in the past year. The members of the band practiced long and hard to perfect their work for their second consecutive appearance in the Annual Tournament of Roses Parade at Pasadena.

DRILL TEAM—Attired in new uniforms, Poly's drill team once again strutted upon the football field between halves to thrill spectators with their tricky formations. For many years the girls, under the splendid direction of Mrs. Kinzer, have won recognition for their outstanding ability.

SONG AND YELL LEADERS—The song and yell leaders are always present at all outstanding athletic contests to bring forth the traditional Poly spirit and enthusiasm that spurs the Jack Rabbits on to victory. In splendid uniforms and waving the brilliant green and gold pom poms of our alma mater the song and yell leaders add color to the spirit of loyalty to every sports event.

YELL LEADERS, SONG LEADERS AND DRUM MAJORS—FIRST ROW: Lepick, Brothers, Hutchison. SECOND ROW: Trauger, Stearns, Long, Larrimer, Huron. THIRD ROW: Wahlstrom, Bascue, Weih, Hale, Harris, Misener, Haasis.

ADVANCED ORCHESTRA—The success of the annual Christmas Concert is due in part to the music provided by the Advanced Orchestra under the direction of Anthony Gill.

TRAFFIC SAFETY CAMPAIGN—The decline in our city's traffic accidents is the highest tribute we can give our city wide campaign for traffic safety. The Poly Public Speaking classes have, during the past two years, made appeals to the public to drive safely. These talks have done much to help educate the public concerning traffic hazards and thus fulfill the desire for a safe city.

SPEAKERS' BUREAU—The Speakers' Bureau has contributed a great deal to the prestige of Poly High. During the year Mr. McCay and Mr. Rider have guided the members so skillfully in their work that Long Beach citizens constantly ask for student speakers for their programs. More than one hundred boys and girls are available to some 75 business, fraternal, civic, religious, patriotic, and educational groups of the community.

ATHLETE SPEAKING CONTEST—The Athletes' Speaking Contest is sponsored by the Poly Chamber of Commerce. An opportunity for participation is given to all boys who have earned letters on athletic teams, and each speaker participating delivers a five minute prepared speech relating to sportsmanship. The preliminary try-outs are held during the second week of December while the final contest is held in the Poly Auditorium in January.

SENIOR PLAY—"Pride and Prejudice" was one of the most impressive and difficult senior plays ever to be presented by the members of the Masque and Sandal dramatic club. It was a romantic drama of the early nineteenth century, and the entire production was outstanding and novel in the staging and costuming. The cast was the largest in the history of the school, comprised of thirty characters. Leading members of the cast were Louise Shultz, Marianne Purdy, Bob Renfro, Patsy Curtis, Barbara Brantingham, Elinore Sizelove, and Dick Buffum.

SENIOR PLAY—Van Horn, Trauger, Sizelove, Buffum.

SENIOR PLAY—Brantingham, Buffum, Christensen, Sizelove, Purdy, Renfro.

MASQUE AND SANDAL—Poly has long been noted for its excellent dramatic productions which are presented by the members of Masque and Sandal. Much credit is due the members of this splendid organization for their fine performances in the annual Senior Play and other dramatic presentations which are given throughout the terms. The actors and actresses are accepted into membership for their versatility and acting ability by the sponsor of the club, Miss Lillian V. Breed.

POLY-WILSON—Poly's 1938 football machine decisively crushed its arch rival, Woodrow Wilson, in the famed Pasadena Rose Bowl, 19-0. Thirty thousand people watched Poly dominate the second half, with scores by Pickett, Crish, and Takahashi, to successfully defend its mythical city title.

SANTA MONICA-POLY—Santa Monica proved no match as the 1938 Hare team finished a most successful season again them, 27-0, with every man on the squad sharing in the clean-cut victory.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE GAMES—Under the able tutelage of Maxson "Red" Montgomery, new football coach, the 1938 Poly High eleven completed its practice schedule with three wins and no defeats. Redondo was subdued 6-0 in a last quarter drive, while Santa Ana went down under an avalanche of passes to Crish and Nowling, 13-0. Fremont High was conquered 20-0 as a result of a 60 yard drive, a touchdown pass, and an even 87 yard punt return by Gene Pickett.

POLY-ALHAMBRA—Poly received its only disappointment of the season at the hands of the strong Alhambra Moors, 2-0. Crish's punt was blocked and rolled out of the end zone for the margin of victory, as Poly's fourth period touchdown attempt failed.

SAN DIEGO-POLY—A second period pass to Nowling, and a 67 yard run by Gene Pickett in the third stanza, enabled the Jackrabbit varsity to overcome San Diego's early lead and gain its first conference victory 13-7.

POLY-PHOENIX—Showing supreme power, the Hares crushed Phoenix High 26-7, in an intersectional battle on Armistice Day before 12,000 people in Phoenix. An 85 yard run by Gene Pickett, passes to Captain Nowling and Willian Smith, and a long drive brought victory to Long Beach.

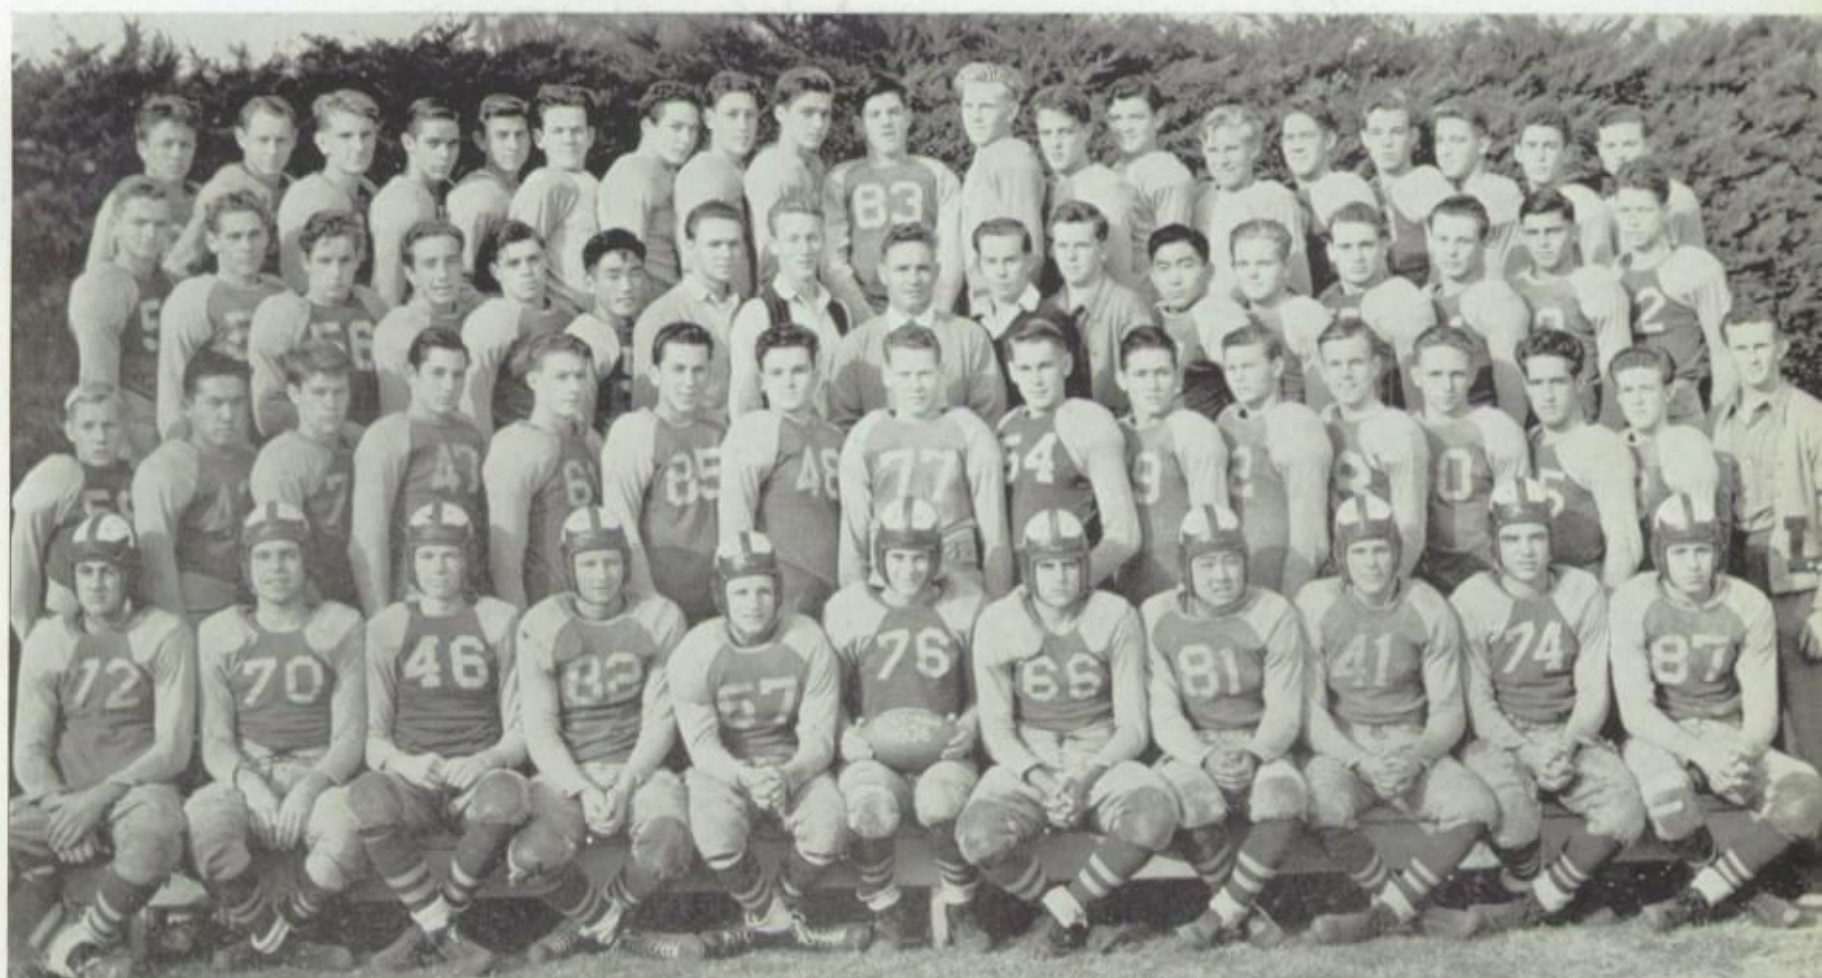

POLY-SAN DIEGO HOOVER—Poly's Hares, playing under the arcs at the border city, drove relentlessly over the Cardinals of Hoover High, 13-6. Drives in the first and fourth quarter made the victory possible.
